

From the East

Brethren

It is my hope that the new year has found all of us in good spirits. The start of a new year brings a new beginning, and a chance to improve ourselves. We as masons have a new opportunity to keep becoming better men, thru the teachings of masonry and to help those who have knocked at our door wanting the same.

As I step down from my labors as Worshipful Master, I look back and realize that it was thru the efforts of every brother who stepped up at the different activities that I was able to accomplish what I had set out to do. I am very thankful for all the help and would like to remind the craft that no one brother can do it all and it takes all of us under the Leadership of the Worshipful Master to make sure Pine Castle continues for generations to come.

Our New Leader for 2016, Worshipful Master elect James Guest and our elected and appointed officers, will be installed on Saturday, January 16 at 6pm. I would like to see every brother of Pine Castle at this installation to show our support.

This Saturday, the 9th, we will be having a work call to get the lodge ready for this installation. The exterior of the lodge will need a pressure washing, Pegram hall will need to be stripped and waxed and all the common areas need to be cleaned up. With that said, I will see all of you there this Saturday at 9 am sharp.

Food for thought:

"Yesterday is History, Tomorrow is the Future, And Today is: yes, Today is a Gift, that is why we call it the Present. May all your dealings today and Tomorrow be with the Blessing of your GOD.

If you know of any sickness or distress, or if I can be on any service to you, please feel free to contact me any time. My cell number is 407-538-0162.

Fraternally,
